DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 3, 5, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Alldredge et al. '965. Alldredge discloses a similar flexible conveyor comprising a(n):

- Load-carrying chain (fig. 2) having links (33)
- Conveyor belt support means and conveyor belt guidance means (fig. 3)
- Means provided in each end of the conveyor about which the conveyor belt is guidably turned (inherent, if not obvious)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Aldredge in view of Lachner.

The use of a pinion drive located adjacent to at least one of the means arranged at each end of the conveyor would have been obvious in view of Lachner, who teach using such a pinion drive for the purpose of providing for a means to drive the conveyor.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4, 6, 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
